

The school of technology and management of Lamego (Portugal) is searching for partners, regarding the call for proposals for Knowledge Alliances.

The proposed project aims to develop strategic plans with companies, so higher education institutions can work to promote competitiveness of companies and employability of young graduate students. It will also work on developing a handbook to companies/organizations, regarding sustainability and competitiveness.

If you are interested please contact Ms. Paula Santos, member of the Team Europe Portugal at psantos16@gmail.com.