

MEETmeTONIGHT Music Festival

During the Researchers' Night in September 28, the Politecnico of Milan, the University of Studies of Milan and the Bicocca University of Milan organized a music competition open to solo singers and bands from all over Europe.

How to participate

The competition is open to all European musicians age, provided that the soloist, or at least one band member is a researcher (PhD, PhD, fellows, research assistants, researchers, professors, contractors, associates and ordinary) member university or research center officially recognized.

Registration and expiry

Applicants must register online at the website <http://www.meetmetonight.it/concorso-musicale/> upload their tracks by 18:00 on 29 August 2012.

To the band/artist selected the promoters ensure:

- exhibition for day-stay residents to more than 150 km from Milan;
- an engineer;
- a sound system;
- a backline.

Any other special requirements will be borne by the band / artist will be notified and expressly approved by the organization.

Selection

A panel of experts will select the ten finalists who will compete during the final concert on 28 September in Milan.

Awards

The winner will receive two days in a recording studio for the recording of a single, followed by a tutor, as well as a plaque.

The 2° and 3° place will receive a plaque.

Information

Press MEETmeTONIGHT

Emanuela Capitanio

cell. +393474319334

Federico Cerrato

cell. +393488979909

E-mail: @ ufficio.stampa meetmetonight.it