

Orchestra da Camera di Mantova (OCM) located in Mantova (Lombardy Region - Italy) looks for a project leader in Europe (ORCHESTRA OR A CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL OR AN ORGANISATION OPERATING IN THE FOLLOWING FIELDS: CULTURAL TOURISM, CLASSICAL MUSIC, CONCERT'S ORGANISATION) in order to participate to the next Call Creative Europe - Cooperation Projects - Call for proposal EACEA32/2014 deadline 1st october 2014.

Orchestra da Camera di Mantova was founded in 1981. The OCM has been taken concerts all around Europe with soloists and conductors like Gidon Kremer, Sol Gabetta, Alexander Lonquich, Katia and Marielle Labeque, Joshua Bell, Umberto Benedetti Michelangeli, Giuliano Carmignola, Misha Maisky, Kent Nagano, Maria Joao Pires and the unforgettable Severino Gazzelloni and Astor Piazzolla. In 1997, Italian musical critics awarded the Chamber Orchestra of Mantova the "Franco Abbiati" prize. The Konzertmeister is Carlo Fabiano, who teaches Chamber Music at the National Academy of St. Cecily in Rome. Since 1993 the OCM has held a very successful yearly season, Tempo d'Orchestra. Its concerts take place in the magnificent Bibiena Theatre in Mantova as well as in other venues. Since 2013, the OCM organizes the Mantova Chamber Music Festival, an international meeting of musicians coming from all over the world to play together and to discuss the role of chamber music in the international panorama.

Deadline of this partner search is 14 September 2014

For further information and contacts:

Giulia Buzzi

Orchestra da Camera di Mantova

Piazza Sordello, 12 - 46100 Mantova

+ 39 0376 36 04 76

+39 335 17 90 188

giulia.buzzi@ocmantova.com

www.ocmantova.com